

Andouille Festival, Gumbo Cook-off

Saturday, October 17th 2009
Community Center
Judging promptly @ 2:00pm

The Andouille Festival is having a Chicken Andouille Gumbo cooking contest at this year's festival. Anyone wishing to participate, or need more information is urged to contact the Department of Economic Development (985) 652-9569 Ext. 1115. Space is limited to 10 participants and will be reserved on a first come, first serve basis.

This year's Andouille Festival will be held again at the Community Center Grounds starting at 6:00 pm. Friday, October 16th thru the weekend ending at 10:00 pm Sunday October 18th.

Rules:

- 1 - You must cook a traditional Chicken Andouille Gumbo.
- 2 - Chicken and andouille are the only main ingredients allowed, otherwise you will be disqualified. Other ingredients are for seasoning only.
- 3 - You must use locally produced andouille.
- 4 - A 1 quart sample of your gumbo must be delivered to the atrium of the Community Center Building between 1:30pm and 2:00pm on Saturday, October 17th. Judging will promptly start at 2:05pm
- 5 - There are no heating facilities for this cook-off so please bring your 1 quart of gumbo pre warmed and ready to serve.
- 6 - DO NOT put rice in your gumbo. The judges will add rice if needed.
- 7 - Judges will rate each gumbo on:

Taste/Flavor - does it taste like chicken andouille gumbo? 1 2 3 4 5

Smell - Does it make your mouth water or does it smell like a barnyard?
1 2 3 4 5

Seasoning - Is it too salty or not enough, overpoweringly smoky, too hot or not enough?
Is there too much of any ingredient? Are Chicken and Andouille the main ingredients?
1 2 3 4 5

Consistency - Is it too thin or too thick? 1 2 3 4 5

Color - Is the color correct? Does it look like broth or is it black?
1 2 3 4 5

Construction - Is it well put together? Do the ingredients blend together? Is one ingredient overpowering? Are the onions too raw? Are the andouille and chicken cut in proportional sizes for the dish. Too large or too small. Can the ingredients be identified.
